

Former Foreign Minister Gareth Evans: Responsibility to Protect     YaleGlobal 27 April 2011     (

...) In an interview with YaleGlobal editor Nayan Chanda, Gareth Evans, the former Foreign Minister of Australia and former President of International Crisis Group, explains the origin of Responsibility to Protect --R2P -- concept and hails the UN resolution 1973 as breaking a new ground in the development of global governance. The NATO mission in Libya thus marks a turning point. (...)

See
video