

Infographics to Honor Genocide Awareness Month

To honor Genocide Awareness Month, the ICRtoP is releasing a set of infographics designed to be used as educational tools on atrocity crimes and their prevention/response. The infographics will highlight past cases of genocide and other atrocity crimes, provide overviews of justice and accountability measures taken in such cases; and highlight key atrocity prevention tools. Find the infographics published so far below.

A quick guide to the UN's Framework of Analysis for Atrocity Crimes

Learn about National Mechanisms to prevent atrocity crimes

Q and A on the United States' Atrocity Prevention Board

Burundi: The Genocide at a Glance

- — Atrocity Prevention Networks
- — Referral of Libya to the International Criminal Court
- — Remembering Srebrenica
- — Justice and Accountability in the DRC
- — What is the Complementarity Principle?